It is sweet to be appreciated by a great number and to be understood by a few.

Many people may think that putting a yearbook together is easy, but ask any annual staffer from previous years. We had layouts to make, copies to type, and deadlines to meet. At times we wished we could just throw in the towel and give up, but we didn't. Why? Because there was one special person around to help. Besides all the work she had to do, she always found time to help us. She was there to keep us going when we wanted to quit, gave us advice when we had a problem. She was there when we needed her. You may not have thought she was that important, but we did. We, the annual staff, dedicate this annual to our advisor, Mrs. Sue Geyer.

*"There are times when encouragement means alot
And a word is enough to convey it;
There are those who could have, as easy as not
But just the same, they didn't say it."*

SCHALLER HOSTS TWO EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Alejandra Martinez (Alex) arrived in Schaller on August 16th. At this time she became a member of the Lyle Martin family. Alex originally came from Cali, Columbia, where she has three sisters, a mother, and a father, who is a general doctor. During her stay Alex kept busy with HomeEc., Typing, Geography, American History, and Music. Alex also hoped to learn more about our customs and to make new friends.

On January 21, Schaller welcomed its second exchange student named Carlos Arruda Accio-ly. Carlos is originally from Rio De Janerio, Brazil, and during his stay, he too was living with the Martins. Carlos has two sisters and two brothers. Carlos' father is an economist. He also had a busy year studying Geography, American Problems, English, Chemistry, Industrial Arts, and Music. Carlos commented that school was excellent!

For once it's "peace" full in here!

Have you heard the latest?

Isn't Jonie a little big for this game!

Schaller's own 3 stooges.

May I take summer lessons on the tuba?

How's this for choreography Mrs. Zahren!

Oh yum! Hot dogs and mashed potatoes again!

CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of 1980, having only a few short hours until we reach that final end of our years at Schaller High and being at the beginning of a whole new and different part of life, do make publish and declare this our last will and testament, hereby revoking any wills previously made by us when we might have thought the end was surely near.

We, the Seniors, being of sound mind and bodies, bequeath our ability to get things done on time to the Juniors; our experiences to the Sophomores; and all our old tests to the Freshman.

I, Megan Broders, will all my sympathetic feelings to all the underclassmen. Hopefully, they will help them make it through the Schaller school without losing their sanity, if they haven't already lost it.

I, Dean Felten, will my hair style to anyone who cares to wear it that way.

I, Mitch Wilde, will my jumping ability and ability not to foul to any of the girls on the basketball team.

I, Mark Lichtenberg, will my height and extra large shoulder pads to Todd Candor for his 1980-1981 football season.

I, Chris Shell, will my basketball uniforms, #42 and #43, to Kevin King.

I, Karen Tuel, will my contacts to Sharon Graham because, for some reason, her glasses got broken.

I, Tammy Franzkowiak, will my rowdiness to Tammy Sackett. Hopefully it will help her get through every class.

I, Kathy Pyle, will the right to drive around in our Lincoln to Coach Marilyn Hardersen in hopes that she will impress a guy and catch him quick.

I, Doug Schmidt, will my great Vega to whoever wants the "health hazard car."

I, Renae Tokheim, will my large behind to Ann so she'll have something to complain about.

I, John Cole, will my old marching band shoes, painted black, to anyone with feet bit enough to keep them on.

I, Deb Wendel, will my always dirty car to Deb Grieme, so that she may have a substitute in case the "Purple Pontiac" ever dies of rust. That is, if mine doesn't die first.

I, Rick Sackett, will some motorcycle training wheels to Ronny Schmidt, in hopes that they will save his life and skin.

I, Denise King, will my height to Barb Brown. Then maybe she'll have to be in the front row for every picture, instead of the back.

I, Tom Miller, will the school lunches to anybody who would like to eat them.

I, Staci Fitzsenry, will my survival kit (alias purse) to the school, for anyone to use.

I, John Breuklander, will my sense of humor to Mr. Ruden, because I'd hate to see someone go without one.

I, Kim Franzkowiak, will my wardrobe of dresses and shoes to Nita Skou in hopes that she'll like to wear them.

I, Renea Leask, will my blue tennys and shy, quiet, nature to Patty Winkler so she stays out of trouble, like I did.

I, Kevin Grieme, will my glasses to Michele Sims so that she has something to set on her nose and a big handkerchief so she doesn't have problems in hand.

I, Gaye Luft, will my hands to Deb, Michele, and Kari because they'll need as many hands as possible to master ALL the music they'll get next year.

I, Keith Borcharding, will my ability to spend a fortune playing Space Invaders and eating pizza at Barnies to anyone who can afford it.

I, Larry Ober, will the right to sleep in Mass Media to anyone wishing to obtain that right.

I, Alex Martinez, will my accent to Kari Hansen, Patti Winkler, and Mary Jo Naberhaus, so they will have the opportunity to enjoy it after I leave, because they love it.

I, Lori Madsen, will my ability to shake my shoulders in cheerleading and understanding jokes to Mary Beth Kestel.

I, Steve Saville, will the pencil I wrote this will with to whoever has my locker next year.

I, Brian Kenny, will my parking space on the school grounds to any fool who wants to park there.

I, Andy Swanson, will my ability to look like Honest Abe (with my Beard and black trench coat) to Paul McDermott.

I, Lois Graham, will Sandy M. my cover-up make-up for her out of school activities, and my diving ability to the future volleyball players.

I, Connie Kestel, will my eating habits to the Junior girls of 1980.

I, Janet Turnquist, will my secretive behavior to anyone who needs it to stay out of trouble in school.

I, Mitch Barlow, will my curly hair to Dan or Todd in hope that it will put some excitement in their lives.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and affixed our seal at our high school, in the city of Schaller and State of Iowa this nineteenth day of May, 1980, A.D.

CLASS PROPHECY

Being curious as to what the future would bring, we had the shop class build a time machine for us. We had spun the wheel and came up with the year 1990. The results of what we found were:

We saw Mitch Barlow relaxing at his hunting resort in Minnesota while his wife was slaving over a hot stove with their children under her feet.

As we were cruising down 131 we were flagged down by the newest recruit of CHIPS, Megan Broders.

A crowd was gathered at Caesars Palace to find John Breuklander, performing live, as the new Steve Martin, using jokes he first used at his alma mater, Schaller High.

Early one morning as we were walking down the street we spied a meat market named Meats Unlimited, owned by our own meat chopper, Keith Borcharding.

Our next stop was Miami Beach where we would do some sunbathing. Who did we run into, none other than John Cole, right after he discovered a new breed of green pigs.

Flying over the ocean to visit our foreign countries, we ran into a bomber flying over Russia. As we zoomed in for a closer look at the pilot it turned out to be Dean.

Connie, we found, was taking a rest on the French Riviera after her Carribean cruise.

Wanting to relive some of our old memories, we tuned in on Tammy walking beans with the help of her 4 children.

Continuing down the gravel road we found Brian using the latest in farm equipment on one of his sections of land.

As night was approaching us we got ready for the Emmies. Walking down the aisle in our evening gowns, we noticed Kevin up on stage accepting an Emmy for Best Song.

We happened to enter in on an IPS business next when we saw Denise taking shorthand for her boss.

Due to all this traveling we needed to fill our time machine with gas, so we made a pit stop. We got to talking to the attendant about the owner, Mark, and his wife, to pass the time away.

We needed more clothes if we were to continue with our adventures. Therefore, stopping in one of the most expensive stores, we were helped personally by the fashion merchandiser, Lori Madsen.

It was a good idea to get new clothes, for when we looked up Tom, he was busy working on his farm trying to keep occupied for his wedding day was approaching soon.

It was time to relax again so we dropped in on a concert at Carnegie Hall. For an evening of pleasure we listened to a pianist, Miss Gaye Lynn Luft, performing many splendid numbers.

If wrestling was your gig, you should have joined us as we saw an All-Star Wrestling show. In Adrian Adonis' corner we saw his wife, Renea Leask, mopping his forehead.

Our time machine needed a few repairs so we had a local carpenter, Larry, fix it for us.

Rick, we discovered, was working on his car getting it ready for the Indianapolis 500.

Around this time we rummaged up where Renae Tokheim was. A few years out of high school Renae got married and started work at a nursery school.

Is patience put to a test? We walked into a classroom one day and saw Steve teaching a Bookkeeping class.

Searching for a Black Labrador, a hunting dog? Contact Doug, who is the owner of the local kennel.

There happened to be a power failure in Sioux City at the time we were there. The electricians, Chris and his crew, were hard at work getting it fixed.

Another night of relaxation was upon us. As we walked into a night club we saw Karen working her night shift.

Needing a place to stay for the night we drove to a cozy motel. It just happened to be one in the long chain of motels owned by Andy Swanson, whose headquarters was in Texas.

We finally caught up with Janet. She had been traveling around the country.

Deb was married to her high school sweetheart, settled down and had a family by the time we looked her up.

As we were entering a business firm we were greeted by the receptionist, Lois Graham.

Walking into a ritzy bank to get a loan on our time machine, we ran into Kim who was going off on her lunch break with her cute husband.

To keep updated on what was going on with the rest of the world, we contacted Mitch Wilde, who used his computer programming skills to aid us.

If we were going to go dancing this evening we would need some quick lessons. As we walked into a dance studio we saw Staci and her co-partner giving lessons to a group of adults.

After Alex returned to Columbia, she finished school and took up a job which enabled her to meet all types of people.

Since our time machine was such a success we thought we might put it on the market. As we walked into this executive building the receptionist said we should talk to Miss Pyle. However, Kathy was not in at the time, she was out coaching the local basketball team.

The morning of May 19, dawned with mixed emotions of both joy and sadness for 32 students, the Schaller High School Class of 1980, as they waited to make a big step in their lives, to receive their diplomas and graduate from high school. The long awaited moment was now at hand and the seniors donned the traditional cap and gown to stand together as a class for one final instant. Mrs. Judy Zahren played Pomp and Circumstance, and the Class of 1980 proceeded into the auditorium to finally live the dream they had shared for 13 years. Together they sang the song, "These Are the Best Times" and then listened as three of their classmates used the moment to reflect upon the past and gaze into the future. Mr. Blake then introduced seven honor students and the salutatorian and valedictorian, Deb Wendel and Kathy Pyle. And then the goal was reached and the dream was no longer a dream. Each individual senior walked on stage to receive his diploma and cross the threshold into a new part of life.

Graduation Speakers were: Mitch Barlow, Kathy Pyle, Kevin Grieme.

*Head Ushers: Kathy Kestel, Stuart Clausen.
Ushers: Gary Pyle, Kris Wilder, Rita Tokheim, Dave Wandrey.
Senior Choir: "These Are the Best Times."*

CHORUS PERFORMS IN BO-COON FESTIVAL

The music department had a busy but enjoyable year. The first performance was given by the Girls Glee with the theme: We're Off To See The Girls Glee Tea. The rest of the music groups had their share of performances at the annual concerts. The Mixed Chorus had the privilege to attend the Bo-Coon Music Festival at Wall Lake on February 29, with our Swing Choir also doing a performance. An exchange concert was given with Odebolt on March 5 after they appeared earlier before our student body. Besides all these concerts, our music groups attended contest.

The band department was also active this year. Our Marching Band attended a contest in Sheldon this fall. We attended for comments only but learned alot from watching the other entries. Jazz Band and Concert Band worked hard on their concert and contest pieces all year.

This year our Swing Choir was more enthusiastic than ever! Even though they had to roll out of bed early to make it in for 7:15 a.m. practices, they found enough pep to get them through the day. They performed numerous times at concerts and ladies luncheons. They also performed at the Bo-Coon Music Festival, an exchange concert with Odebolt, and at a Swing Choir Contest at Poca-hontas, where their hard work and determination paid off and won them a second place trophy!

2. "Listen to the Music."
3. Jeopardy 199—9!
4. "Almost Like a Song"
5. Nita, Kim, Deb, and Kathy.
6. You'll come again!
7. "A Bushel and a Peck"
8. The mighty jazz band!
9. Bunk, Bunka, Bunka, Bunka...
10. It ain't so hard to do...
11. Tut, tut... tut, tut...
12. Guess who?? Faculty?
13. Oh, I wish I had some "helping hands."
14. The faculty??

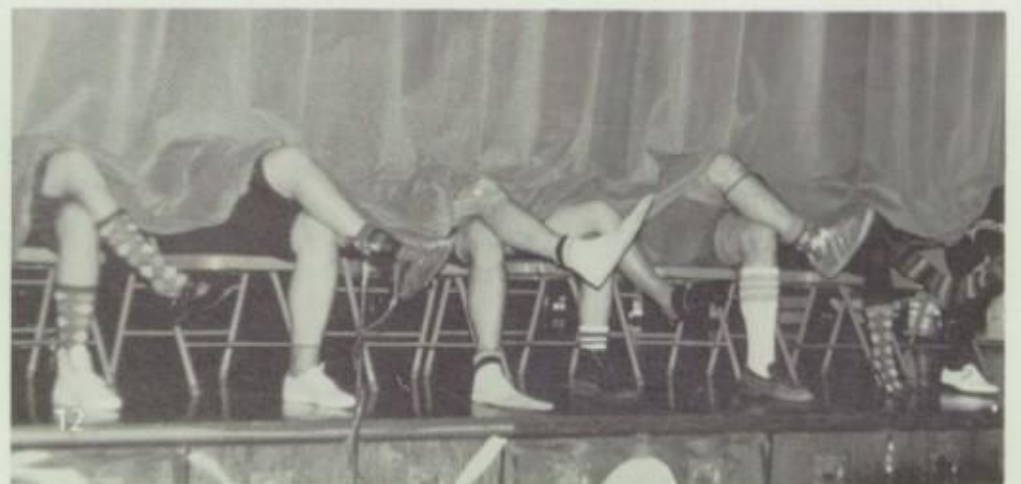

For the third year, the music department combined talents and presented the first big production of the year, The Big Show, with the theme "Listen to the Music". A lot of time, a ton of practices, and many laughs were spent preparing for the show. But when it was all over it all seemed worthwhile. Some of the highlights of the show were: Todd Candor imitating the voluptuous Dolly Parton; King Tut with Tracey, Mary Jo, and their backup voices; Schallers Ladies of the Evening with their song "A Bushel and a Peck"; and our teachers with their rendition of "The Pink Panther". To round up the evening a gift was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Zahren for their hard work.

The Beginning of a decade brought a new feature to the musical department, a musical, entitled, "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown." The musical began as a mini-course and concluded as a memorable event for those who participated. The two act comedy was based on the lives of the Peanuts characters, Charlie Brown, Snoopy, Linus, Lucy, Patty, and Schroeder.

The 1979 Schaller Rockets had a disappointing season. The Rockets finished the season with a 3-6 conference record and a 4-10 overall record. This team had many close games, quite often just a couple of runs from winning. With the loss of just one senior and many good players coming up, the Rockets should have some better teams to come. Schaller landed two players on the all-conference team. These players were Joel Van Buskirk; Honorable mention, infield and Mitch Wilde; Second team infield.

ONE STEP AWAY

This years volleyball team started off with practices during those hot summer days before school started. Those practices really paid off though, as the Varsity came up with a 13-4 winning season and the J.V. with a 6-4 season. The girls acquired the Sectional Championship plaque by defeating Galva and Ida Grove. In the first round of districts Schaller played Crestland moving them on to the Semi-finals. The highlight of the season came during the semi-final round when Schaller was paired up against Lytton. Hopes were high for they had beaten Lytton once before. The girls were down 2-0 in games, but they dug up enough energy to beat Lytton 3-2, moving them on to the final round of districts. Here they met up with Pomeroy, which proved to be too much. The Schaller girls ended the season, one step away from state.

Lack of experience and injuries hampered the Rockets early in the 1979 season. As the season progressed the young, determined Rockets became of age and finished the season with four consecutive victories.

Eight seniors: Kevin Grieme, Mitch Barlow, Brian Kenny, Dean Felten, Mark Lichtenberg, Steve Saville, Andy Swanson, and Mitch Wilde provided fine leadership throughout the trying first half of the season and reaped the benefits during the latter half.

Brian Kenny, Mark Lichtenberg, Andy Swanson, and Paul McDermott received all-conference honors. Brian Kenny led all class IA rushers in the state with 1,578 yards. Mark Lichtenberg received a football scholarship at Iowa State University.

This year the Rocket team was small in numbers but great in power. It took 100% of willpower from each player and with much effort they were able to obtain a winning season. The team had only two seniors, Mitch Wilde and Chris Shell. They will be greatly missed next year. With only two graduating, Coach Jansen hopes that the amount of experience gained by the younger players will be enough to guide them on to successful seasons in future years.

At the beginning of the season the basketball team chose "We Are Family" for their motto. They knew the season would not be easy and, as in all families, there was bound to be problems. They worked hard to solve their problems but were only able to come up with a 6-13 record.

Being limited in numbers which, put them in a jam once or twice, did not stop the J.V. from having an exciting 7-1 winning season. The nights of February 11 and 12 proved to be the most thrilling of the season as Sandi Tokheim put a shot in as the buzzer went off to beat Wall Lake by one point and when Tracey VanBuskirk shot from 15 feet out with 3 seconds left on the clock to break the tie against Willow. Rita Tokheim was chosen 3rd Team All-Conference.

GRAPPLERS FACE

Front row: John Breuklander, Doug Schmit, Jeff Naslund, Doug Ayers, Dwayne Roling. Back row: Mr. Hantsbarger, Rich King, Tim Taylor, Mark Lichtenberg, Paul McDermott, Grant Currie, John Cole.

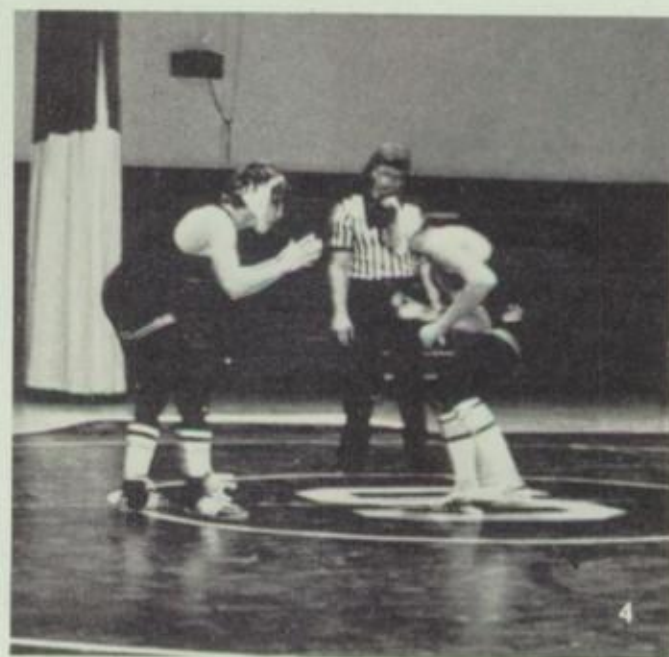

A tough season faced the Rockets for the 1979-80 and the competition proved to be too much for the team, as they could never seem to come up on top. Even though the team could not put it together to get a meet win, individual performances provided in the breakage of old records. John Breuklander now holds the record for the number of takedowns in a year with 29. This betters the record set in 1975-76 by Curt Brau, which was 23. John also wrapped up the Escape record with 25, bettering Brad Tuel's mark of 12 in 1976-77. Jeff Naslund was named Most Valuable Wrestler for the 1979-80 season. Jeff and Mark Lichtenberg traveled as far as Districts. Mark ended his career there while Jeff has next year to try for State.

Seniors clockwise: Mark Lichtenberg, Doug Schmit, John Cole, John Breuklander.

Being few in numbers did not stop this year's track team from breaking records. At the Wall Lake track meet, Mary Jo Naberhaus broke the shot record with a throw of 34' 1½". At the same track meet Diane Wendel broke the discus record with a throw of 113' 9¼". At the conference track meet, held at Lake View, Sandi Tokheim set a new record in the 400 meter low hurdles, with a time of 72.88.

"SHS Track: The Fabulous Few"

The few guys which represented Schaller's track team did as well as could be expected. Individual performances brought in the points they scored. "Enthusiasm" is a word which well describes the cheerleaders for the 1979-80 football and basketball seasons. They were always present cheering the teams on, even if they were 10 or 20 points behind. They never gave up and always made the teams seem to try harder. Maybe they liked the treats the cheerleaders always brought them every Friday, or the dances the cheerleaders hosted, and for the football players "spirit Week", or just the pep rallies. What ever the reason, their support and encouragement meant much to the teams and also the school!

Attending a year-book camp in late July, the editors brought home many new ideas. After going to Storm Lake for a workshop in the fall, the annual staff began its work. Many midnight rendezvous' enabled this annual to be completed. Projects taken on by the staff this year were: selling ads and Schaller shirts and coats, having concession stands for volleyball and basketball games, and the annual event of taking orders for the yearbook.

STUDENT COUNCIL MAKES CHANGES

At the start of the school year, the Student Council was busy with many changes. Ideas thought up the previous year became reality. One of the first changes, which was widely accepted, was for Homecoming. For many years we had only a Queen and her court. They, in turn, chose their own escorts for the pep rally and half time entertainment. The Student Council ended the problem of finding an escort by having a Homecoming King and Queen. Each class was to vote for a guy and girl to represent their class. A second change was in the lunch menu. With an agreement from the cooks, a chef salad was served besides the regular meal. A sign-up sheet was placed on a bulletin board at the beginning of the week, giving the kids the opportunity to have the salad, if they signed up, or the regular meal, or both.

SCIENCE OLYMPIC TEAM

For the second year in a row the Schaller School sent it's team to Fort Dodge for the AEA Science Olympics. For the second year in a row the team brought home the first place trophy in all but one event. Team standings for each event were:

Egg Package Drop...1st
 Bridge Building...1st and 7th
 Paper Airplane...3rd
 (1st in time, 3rd in distance)
 Slow Bicycle...1st and 2nd
 Clay Boats...1st and 2nd
 Mousetrap Car...1st and 2nd

The school also sent a team of students to Fort Dodge, the same day, to take a group of tests called the JETS tests. The team placed third in this competition. Kevin Grieme surprised everyone, including himself, by placing first in the physics test.

1979 HOMECOMING

Homecoming was a very memorable event this year. Again the cheerleaders featured "Spirit Week" which helped to boost the morale of the fans and players. Some of the favorite events of the week were, "Pajama Day", and of course the annual Homecoming Pep Rally. A first this year was the crowning of a Homecoming King. Spirit week ended on Friday night with a heart breaking loss to Battle Creek. Battle Creek came back on the last two minutes of the game to win 22-20.

1. Music for the homecoming dance was provided by Black Pearl.
2. Gaye and Renae read the morning newspaper.
3. Dave, your underwear go beneath your pants!
4. Did you know —?
5. It's a beautiful day in the neighborhood . . .
6. Come on Mary Jo, let Mr. B see too!
7. We can do it. All we need is "determination."

ACTIVITIES

1. The marching band at halftime.
2. Rockets greeted by their fans.
3. Go get-um guys!
4. Our new cheerleaders?!
5. Ellie dreams of a victory.

JUNIOR- SENIOR CLASS PLAY "TELL

Front row: Kris Wilder, Ann Crawford, Tracey VanBuskirk, Staci Fitzsenry, Sharon Cole, Todd Fitzsenry. Back Row: Diane Wendel, Ellie Taylor, Kevin Grieme, Jim Godbersen, Kelly Burhop, Paul McDermott, Gary Pyle.

Having only four weeks of practice, the juniors and seniors were able to present the play "Tell Me That You Love Me Junie Moon" on April 11. The play was about three young people—Arthur, Warren and Junie Moon—who had been marked tragically by life. They decided to pool their meager resources and face the world together. This is an off-beat play about off-beat people. Their adventures were sad and happy.

1. One, two ... King Me!
2. He beat me and I couldn't move for a long time.
3. You're right Minnie. I think it's a great idea.
4. It's nonsense to say you can't walk. Psychogenic.
5. Now Warren, we will take our medicine like good soldiers.
6. To Mrs. Moon ... General Delivery ... Earth
7. I'll have to wave good-bye from here.
8. I'll aska da Boss.
9. I'll bet you'll be glad to get out of here.
10. Hey Lil, get a load of this.
11. Hold me. I'm drowning ... It's like the dream.
12. It says right here. This grouping lends itself.

MANY INVOLVED IN ONE-ACT PLAYS

On November 16, 1979, the Schaller High School presented three one-act plays. The first play, entitled "The Minister's Black Veil", took place in the early 20th century, New England, in the parlor of Reverend Hooper's parsonage. The second of the three one-acts was called "Louder Please". With the setting of a park bench, this humorous piece showed everyone that two people hard of hearing could carry on a conversation. The last play, "An Old-Fashioned Soap Opera", was a melodrama performed by the speech class. As always, the villian is foiled and the hero and heroine lived happily ever after.

On March 12, 1980 an evening of entertainment was provided by the Sophomore Class. With the help of a few Juniors as assistant directors and John O'Meara, Erin Hix and Michele Sims as readers, the Sophomores put their talents together for another year of Sophomore One Act Plays.

LETTERCLUBS HOST SCHOOL CARNIVAL

A new decade always seems to bring on new happenings and new ideas and the 1979-80 school year seemed to prove that. While other ideas of the school were coming through with new beginnings, the Letterclubs combined to bring about something new of their own. Pooling their idea, resources, and money, the Letterclubs held a carnival to raise money for a weight-lifting machine. At first it looked to be an impossible job, but when compared with the good times that surrounded it, it was all worth it.

PEP CLUB MAKES ITS DEBUT

Front row: Lynn Candor, Lisa Stratton, Missy Martin, Linda McDermott, Ann Naberhaus, Shelly Kestel, Jenny Claussen. Second row: Sue Barlow, Mary Beth Dick, Stacy Pfrimmer, Cami Taylor, Michelle McClintic, Jan Currie, Alisa Langner, Bonnie Jewell, Sheri Ober. Third row: Staci Fitzsenry, Gaye Luft, Kim Franzkowiak, Kathy Kestel, Rita Tokheim, Mary Beth Kestel, Denise Dick, Robert Segabart. Back row: Kris Wilder, Tracey Van Buskirk, Kathy Pyly, Lori Madsen, Karen Tuel, Lori Woodke, Ann Crawford, Michele Sims, Ellie Taylor, Barb Brown.

As the decade brought new changes to the school, some were more widely accepted than others. The beginning is usually the hardest, as was the case with the Pep Club. They started the year with approximately 20 members, but as the year came to an end, the group numbered 35. At the first meeting of the Pep Club, officers were chosen, consisting of Kathy Pyle as President, Staci Fitzsenry as Vice President, and Barb Brown as Secretary-Treasurer. They discussed what dues would be and what projects they would take on. They took turns with the cheerleaders giving the football and basketball players and wrestlers treats, rode the Pep bus, cheered for our teams at the games and participated in Spirit Week. It is going to take a while before the Pep Club is in full force. What they needed most was members to help support it.

Future Pep Club members, we hope.

1. Music was provided by Geyser.
2. A time for slow dancing.
3. Seniors wait to be served.

This year we were privileged to have a former teacher, Mr. Prange, return to Schaller to give the prom speech. Everyone was thrilled to hear him speak for he brought back old memories that many had forgotten. After the banquet, Geyser provided the entertainment. This was a unique band for our own Mr. Zarhen lead in the percussion section. Overall, the juniors hard work and planning paid off and made Prom 1980 a memorable event.

*Friends come, friends go; the loves men know are ever fleeting;
In song and smile a little while we read their kindly greeting;
With warmth and cheer they linger near,
the friends we fondly treasure;
Then on a day they drift away,
a loss no words can measure.
This much we know: friends, come, friends go,
as April's gladness passes,
As sun and shade, in swift parade,
paint changes on meadow grasses.
And though we grieve to see them leave,
in thought we still enfold them;
In Memory's Net we keep them yet,
and thus can ever hold them.
They come, they go — these Loves we know.
Life's Tides are ever moving;
But year on year, they still seem near—so great the power of loving.*
